WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1876.

Greenbacks at the New York Gold Exchange yesterday closed at 90.

The watchful astronomer at the Washington National Observatory were straining their eyes through the big telescope yesterday to discover the transit of Vulcan, but without success; they could find nothing of that erratic orb.

Recent developments in the Indiana canvass clearly denote that the Independent-Greenback movement in that State is being engineered by the Democrats, who expect to be able at the last moment to reclaim from the Greenback organization the Democrats who have been left as nucleus, calculating that several thousands of Republicans of indication tendencies will be foisted into voting for WOLCOTT, thereby diverting from Hamilton the votes that would otherwise elect him. It is a well-known fact that in several instances the expenses of independent demonstrations have been paid out of the regular Democratic campaign fund, and that Democratic torch-bearers have been loaned to swell Greenback processions. Lately the eyes of the soft-money Republicans have been opened to this deep-laid scheme, and there is an excellent prospect that the greater proportion of them will vote with their own party and insure the election of Bus HAM-MONTON.

The railway trains from all the principal cities to-day will be freighted with a motley crowd of repeaters, ping-pong, and blood-tubs en route to Indianapolis, ostensibly to attend the Convention of Democratic soldiers and sailors in that city, but in reality to be quartered at various points in Indiana until after the election of Tuesday next. Baltimore has contributed a large quantity of her choicest voting material, including a fine phalanx of repeaters, deserters, and boun-tymen, who have been furnished transportation to Indianapolis, with instructions to vote as early and often as circumstances will permit. In Chicago provision has been made for all who want a free ride and plenty to eat and drink, and the contribution from this city of bummers and ballot-box stiffers is certain to be large. There will be a great turn-out of "veterans," and to the extent that these importations are permitted to remain and vote the cause of TILDEN and Reform will be benefited. The Republicans, however, are on the lookout, and will exercise all possible vigilance to prevent the wholesale colonization fraud that is to be attempted.

In the midst of the endless flight of predictions and speculations of reliable correspondents, it is pleasing to know for a cer-tainity that the Czar of All the Russias has written a formal letter to his beloved brother, FRANCIS JOSEPH, Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary, in which the former has expressed his views upon the Turkish situation, and at the same time declared his declared preference for peace, the latter declaration being accompanied, as is usual on such occasions, with the diplomatic reservations concerning national honor and so forth.
The impression, fast gaining ground at the Courts of the several European Powers, is that the Czar, having commenced an epistolary campaign, will extend his correspondence, and will soon inform the other European potentates to the details of his particular plan for curbing the Moslem and protecting the Christian inhabitants of the provinces of European Turkey. The opinion is daily becoming more general in Europe that this Russian proposition will be backed, if necessary, by arguments which will convince the other Powers that the Czar has determined to attempt, at least, the solution of the question which has so often, and under so many guises, presented itself to the sovereigns of Europe.

The Chicago produce markets were active ber and $9.45 or $9.50 seller the year. Meats

Mr. TILDEN, who holds this to be the theory of our Government, aspires to be President—not President of the United States, but, as he declared Mr. Lincoln would be, the "Executive head of the Federal Government." Jeff DAVIS was the "Executive head" of the Confederate States of the South. Mr. TILDEN asks to be elected the "Executive head" of the Confederation of States. This theory of a confederation as opposed to a nation, and "a Federative Agency" as opposed to a National Government, and a confederation of States held together by "a slender conventional tie" which any State may "snap" at pleasure, is supported a constitutional amendment perpetually prohibiting the abolition of slavery except when brought forward by the "Solid South."

Now wonder that the heroes of the last cause are a unit for Mr. TILDEN.

The Committee have reported a proposition to meet the present emergency, which is to force the Confederation which, in substance, takes away no rights whatever which the free States ever should attempt to use, whilst it vests exclusively in the slave States the right to use them, or not as they think proper; the whole treatment of the subject to which they relate being conceded to be a matter of common interest to them, exclusively within their jurisdiction and subject to their control.

Now, the Northern States having since done what Mr. ADAMS then declared they had no right to do, he acts politically with the men who believed as he did, and who still believe that they have been plundered by what Mr. TILDEN called "treasoners."

Mr. ADAMS, then, any more likely to oppose the Confederate claims for the payment of their losses in the War than Mr. TILDEN himself?
He is further barred from opposing such claims now because he was then subjected to coercion in case the proposed concessions to the South were not accepted and the States should insist upon withdrawing from the "League."

What is the significance of all this? Why is the City of Charleston in the hands of a Confederate majority?

They have drawn up a document in favor of the Southern Confederacy, and the men who have signed it are sure and give Post-Office address in full, including State and County.

THE WAR.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—A correspondent at Constantinople telegraphs that the situation there is really critical. The incendiary character of the articles in the public prints, he thinks, renders it urgent that an American fleet be sent to the Bosphorus to protect the lives and property of Americans.

It is to read a poem on the occasion of a bust of Thomas Paine in India, Philadelphia.

Another guardedly says that Timoleon deserves as well to be and his earlier ventures.

His narrative does not shake the New York Times, but rather admirable journal to vindicate the same as superior to all others.

A young lady of Boston, was won with a gold cross appropriately inscribed with her bravery in saving a drowning child, Aug. 26.

Performers were married on the last Sunday night, Aug. 26, at the ceremony, and were received with a comic song by the bridegroom.

THE PORTE'S REPLY.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—It is stated that the Porte's reply to the proposals of the Powers offers a suspension of hostilities, but not an armistice. The sultan does not grant the autonomy demanded for certain provinces, but promises reforms throughout the Empire which will render an autonomy unnecessary.

SEVILLA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—It is officially confirmed that the Servian Government will only yield to a foreign military intervention, and will not enter into peace conditions unless they are first submitted to Servia.

TURKISH PLAN OF REFORM.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—The Porte yesterday communicated to the ambassadors of the whole Empire, including the removal of all disabilities from Christians. The plan is drawn up so as to imply that local autonomy for Bosnia, Bulgaria, and Herzegovina would be useless, although it does not formally refuse autonomy.

It is to the Washington Chronicle而已 upon the members of the committee. Miss Louise, who has been in constant observation that Miss Hutchinson, envious, and scilicet, thought of the justice of this state of it cannot be disputed.

Days before the Diocesan Committee called a meeting for the purpose of discussing the matter, the Porte yesterday communicated his voice against the church, and called him here and again for his signature. The Rev. Mr. Abbott, and said he would have applied to practical schemes he also advocated the establishing of missions by the churches as a young man from haunts of disease.

THE AUSTRIAN AND RUSSIAN PRESS.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times comments upon the excited tone of the Russian and Hungarian press. He says: "It is interesting to notice that the organs of both the Russian and Austrian Governments are exchanging threats of war. The Pester Lloyd declares that Austria will leave home if Russia does not give up its claims. Godes says that Russia will not be stopped, even if she had no allies. The tone of many of the leading organs of Germany is strongly opposed to the supposed ambitious designs of Russia."

The Allgemeine Zeitung says it is convinced no German Government will support Russia's selfish designs. It thinks Russia would recoil from the war if Austria and Turkey accepted her alliance.

THE CZECH REQUEST TO SPEAK PLAINLY.

London, Oct. 3.—The Czech representative of the Times says that the Czar's letter to the Emperor Francis Joseph contains no positive proposal of any action. It lays great stress on the friendly relations between the Czar and Francis Joseph, and the importance of their union, and is expressed to come to an understanding. Within the last few days, however, communications have passed to the Great Powers which indicate that the letter was a preliminary introduction to positive proposals as reported last night.

ENGLISH COUNSEL COUNCIL.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Cabinet Council, held to-day, important action regarding the Eastern question is expected.

Lord Balfour and Mr. Ward Hunt arrived in London yesterday.

The Times correspondent says the Parte's reply to the Powers is very grave, for it reopens the whole question, and strengthens the opinion of those who have maintained that mere persuasion was useless.

LAW.

A telegram from Belgrade says it is asserted that Russia has ordered her railroads leading to Turkey and Roumania to place six men to each car, the same effect has been made to the Roumanian railways.

A dispatch to the Daily News from Bucharest reports that the peasants in the neighborhood of Craiova, in Transylvania, have revolted, and demands payment of the tithes of the harvest, and forbids any threshing until the tithe is paid.

The Times correspondent says there are now 1,900 Russian volunteers in Servia, including 1,500 officers, and 2,000 more volunteers enlisted.

A similar dispatch to the Daily News reports that the Cuban troops have been allowed to allow 500 Russian horses to cross the frontier.

The Pester Lloyd, Count Andrasy's organ, published yesterday, yesterday, showing the necessity of France's defending herself against Russian designs.

ICELAND.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Daily News has a letter from Iceland which reports that the fishing season has been a failure. The price of the laboring people are great, and 3,000 have emigrated to Canada.

FRANCE.

WORKMEN'S CONGRESS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A Paris correspondent says: The opening session of the Congress of Workmen, at the Salle des Etoiles, was attended by 233 Parisian and seventy-nine provincial delegates. All the great cities of France were represented. The galleries were filled with women. Chabot was elected President, and Dupre of Lyons, Secretary. The chief objects of the Congress are to devise plans for obtaining higher wages for the workmen and women, and a share in the Parliamentary representation. There are 207 orators inscribed already, and the nine days' sitting will only give six minutes to each. The workmen will be forever the most fluent to give expression to his views upon the subject before the Convention.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Samson, who was formerly financial editor of the Times, is dead.

GOLD SHIPMENTS.

Five thousand pounds of American eagles were withdrawn from the Bank of England for shipment to the United States. These shipments are expected to continue, the value of money so low that the loss of interest while the gold is in transit is of no importance.

SPAIN.

THE CUBAN GUARDIAN.

LONDON, Oct. 4—5 a.m.—The Standard's Madrid dispatch says it is rumored that General Campos will replace Jovellar as Captain-General of Cuba.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—The weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows a decrease of 20,965,000 marks.

ABYSSINIA.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Alexandria says it is now certain that the reported capture of Massawou by the Abyssinians is unfounded.

HAVANA, Oct. 3.—An unsuccessful attempt has been made to assassinate President Canal, of Hayti.

FIRE.

IN CHICAGO.

The alarm from Box 581 at 1:25 yesterday morning was caused by a fire, supposed to be incendiary, at the residence of Michael Cahill, No. 112½ West Lake street. Damage, $300, fully covered by insurance for $1,000 in unknown known amounts.

The alarm from Box 781 at 12:30 this morning was caused by a fire in the two-story and basement dwelling of Mrs. Elizabeth Hale, occupied by a military store and residence. Damage to building, $300; insured for $2,000 in unknown amounts. The second floor was occupied as a residence by a widow whose furniture and bedding amounts to about $100, upon which there is no insurance.

AT THE TABERNACLE.

The meeting at the Tabernacle last night was a large increase both in numbers and interest. The Rev. Mr. Moore, of the Chicago Theological Seminary, the Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Willing, the Rev. Alvin Bartlett, and Dr. J. H. Miller, all present, and a number of other ministers and laymen, gathered to hear the pastor of the Sabbath-school, who has been a member of the church since 1860, speak on the subject.

THE CLOSING PRAYER.

On the platform was a grand rally of ministers and laymen. Mr. Moore gave a running commentary on a portion of the history of the Prophet Daniel, who seems to be a favorite character with him. In this portrait of Scripture characters the evangelist is infinite. They seem to have suffered him to become perfectly familiar with them as well as with their record in the Bible. It is easy to imagine that when Mr. Moore died and goes to Heaven, Noah, Moses, Abraham, Daniel, David, Paul, Barnabas, and the rest, will seem to him like old acquaintances.

All the pastors are requested to meet in council to-morrow at the close of the noon meeting, to consider and perfect a plan for a general convention of ministers and laymen throughout the Northwest, for this year.

Mr. Moore, who is a member of the Tabernacle, is a man of great personal magnetism, and is well known throughout the country.
